

Hublot components

CASE

No less than 160 manual operations, executed with the greatest care combined with complete mastery of the most modern technologies, are required to produce the Hublot watchcase. It is the perfect integration of all the units involved and the matchless quality of the finish that makes the Hublot watchcase one of the top references as regards elegance and reliability.