CONGRATULATIONS
JUVENTUS FC! ITALIAN
CHAMPIONS. AGAIN.

Juventus won its third straight Serie A title on Sunday without even playing.

The record-breaking feats of Antonio Conte's Juventus take their rightful place in Italian football's hall of fame. And not just for an achievement managed by only four teams in almost a century of Serie A history.

In one season the Bianconeri have relentlessly smashed record after record: 30 masterful victories, including 17 in a row at home, where they are unbeaten, and 12 consecutive wins in Serie A, including eight clean sheets – all in a row.
