“HUBLOT CHARITY WRESTLING” WITH THREE TIME OLYMPIC GOLD MEDALIST, SAORI YOSHIDA

Nagoya- Japan, December 10, 2012 – Hublot held a unique charity event, “Hublot Charity Wrestling”, with a famous Japanese wrestling star, Ms. Saori Yoshida, who won three consecutive Olympic gold medals in the Women's Freestyle 55kg at 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympics and has unprecedented record of 13 consecutive world titles. This event aimed to convey the message to children on “joy of realizing their dreams” and to help reconstruct the quake-hit area in Tohoku through the positive energy of their dreams.

29 young local wrestlers joined the event and practiced with Ms. Yoshida then had matches with her one by one. By honoring the record of her 13 consecutive victories, Hublot has agreed to donate 130,000JPY for each match won by children. All the funds raised by the event were donated to “LOVE FOR NIPPON” (“Nippon” means Japan), an organization dedicating itself to support the people in Tohoku area, where the huge earthquake hit in March 2011. The children successfully won against the medalist and Hublot donated 1,300,000JPY.

To celebrate this grand event, unique piece of Big Bang 38mm was unveiled. It features white color bearing the symbolic gold colored second hand, which is inspired by Ms. Saori Yoshida’s gold medals.
